HOW UNCLE SIMON WAS BEATEN.

That good, consistent colt Uncle Simon was beaten yesterday at Ideal Park, and beaten by youngsters that never before could make the Inspector B—Pansy Blossom colt stretch his neck. It was not his fault, however, that he met defeat. Starter Dick Dwyer settled the colt. It was a half mile dash with but five starters, yet four of these were bad actors, and Uncle Simon, the only quiet one, suffered through the grouped insanity. When the flag fell, Holy Terror was a half dozen lengths in front and well in motion, while Uncle Simon was far back and not nearly on his stride. Of course, Holy Terror, with that advantage, won, but only by a neck and driving hard from Dominator, who ran a cracking good race. Uncle Simon was a top heavy choice, and his defeat hurt the public.

Sullross' sudden life and London Smoke's sensational win were the other afternoon features.

Sullross was in the mile selling race with Weenatchie, Little Dorritt and Necedah. Each had beaten the Foster horse before and on form it looked as though they would do it again, yet Sullross opened an even money favorite. He receded to 3 to 1 on the end, however the old horse was heavily backed by knowing money. The race was an interesting one, but in the final struggle Sullross outgamed the others and won handily at the end. Weenatchie was the choice of the public but whatever chance she had was ruined by the ride she was given by Craig.

London Smoke's win was in the initial event. He is a slow beginner and down the back stretch at one time he was a sixteenth of a mile behind the leader. On the far turn the horse began to pick up his horses and won right on the post from Ida Wagner, who also ran a remarkable race.

Ella Penzance at 3 to 5 won her race easily, and Dockstader well ridden and heavily played took the last race from Fay Belle.
